Common Cross-border Cultural Heritage Promoting International Festival

16.00 - 18.00

At “Hám János” Roman Catholic Theological Highschool Satu Mare, Satu Mare County, Romania

Any further details if necessary (who are invited, topics to discuss at the event, etc.):

The festival aims to promote cultural and natural heritage, to increase interest of all community members in preserving traditions and encourages dialogue and cross-border cooperation. The audience (members of local community, artists, cultural personalities, members of local authorities, local institutions, organizations and mass-media representatives) will discover the cross-border region cultural and natural heritage identifying common features as well as differences.

Children and youth from the 5 participant organizations will present their artistic performances promoting the cross-border cultural heritage. One part of the event will be dedicated for the presentation of the special performance jointly prepared by STEA Association and Down Foundation from Carei's children and youths.

The best pictures taken during the project's main activities will be presented in a photographic exhibition displayed near the entrance in the spectacle hall during the cross-border festival.

The events are open for general public.
